META YACHTS presents FLEUR AUSTRALE

Personality

A large expedition ketch made famous by the navigator Philippe Poupon and his family who made a voyage through the two poles, the Fleur Australe is a yacht capable of withstanding anything: icebergs, high seas, a family with 3 children, a dog... This yacht of a little less than 20 meters has an important capacity of reception and many spaces for storage or household appliances. It has a capacity of 5000 liters of diesel and 2000 liters of water for an autonomy of several weeks.
